John Witt Veteran "Ballhawk" has caught 4,885 baseballs at professional baseball games over the past 32 seasons. Now he is about to catch Baseballs 4 MADD. As a huge baseball fan and a friend to a victim of a drunk driving crash he felt that there was something he had to do. So this year John Witt will be raising money for MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) by catching baseballs.

Pledges will cover ALL Major League Baseballs and Minor League Baseballs that John Witt catches from the World Baseball Classic in March through the entire 2009 baseball season including the Playoffs and World Series. John's goal this season is to raise $10,000 for MADD. This is where we hope friends of MADD, concerned citizens, fellow ballhawks, baseball fans, baseball players, and everyone else will come through and make a pledge on each baseball that John Witt will catch this summer.

With the money that is raised through John Witt's Ballhawking effort, will enable MADD to raise awareness and help victims of this violent crime, drunk driving. Pledge information will remain private and only a name, website/company, and pledge amount will be listed on John Witt's website. All pledges will be handled directly by MADD Orange County, California chapter.

Making a pledge only takes a minute. If you would like to make a pledge please go to the following link:
